Your trip in half the time and twice the comfort

Do you have a holiday home in another part of Europe which you visit regularly by air? Does your company have operating subsidiaries or business requirements around Europe/UK and use airline travel on a regular basis?

If the answers to these questions are “yes”, you may be surprised about how much added value AirShare could bring to your life or business.

- Fly in business class style
- Get airborne only minutes after your arrival at the airport
- Travel to most places in Europe in relaxing style
- Whisk through VIP terminals
- Fly from smaller airports closer to your final destination
- Avoid road congestion, long check-in queues, security, and all the other hassles associated with airline travel.

Even if you do go to a major international airport in your own aircraft, there is nearly always a VIP terminal for ultra fast transit. When compared to airline travel, a typical return trip to Amsterdam, Zurich, or Toulouse in your own aircraft will be completed in half the time and twice the comfort.
